Never been free and never since, I promise,

Will the whole world be warm as this, And as you feel it,

You'll know it's true that you are blessed and holy.
You'll remember when May is tasting over You with desire to be part of the mandala you

These Are Days - 4
you are touched by some thing that will grow and bloom in you
These are the days you might feel a shaft of light until you break.

These are the days you might fill with laughter.
These Are Days
